Just wanted you to know how well received your commencement address was by the people at Bryant College on Saturday. It was by all accounts, including The Providence Journal, a stimulating discussion of our relationship with Russia.

I really appreciate your having done this.

Dear Mr. Casey:

The entire Bryant College community is delighted you have agreed to accept an Honorary Degree from the College and to speak at its 121st Commencement on Saturday, May 19, 1984 at 10:00 a.m.

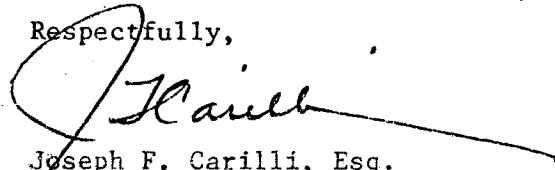

In an effort to streamline the graduation process and insure that your Honorary Degree citation is factual and complete, we ask that you forward any background data you deem appropriate (i.e., biographical sheet, press clippings, feature articles, etc.).

Enclosed is a brief informational list. We would also like to have glossy prints of your photograph. Additionally, we need your measurements in order to have a cap and gown available for you at the Commencement ceremonies. Because we traditionally reserve seats for guests of Honorary Degree recipients, please forward your guest list together with all other requested material to me by April 9, 1984.

On Friday, May 18, at 7:00 p.m., there will be a special dinner at the College to welcome our Honorary Degree recipients. More information concerning the dinner will be sent to you early in April.

President O'Hara has asked me to extend his warm regards. We look forward to meeting you in May.

Respectfully,

Joseph F. Carilli, Esq.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Invitation to Give Commencement Address and Receive Honorary Degree at Bryant College

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline invitation to deliver the address at the 121st Commencement Exercises of Bryant College in Smithfield, Rhode Island, on Saturday, 19 May, at 10:00 a.m.

2. Background: President William T. O'Hara, on behalf of the undergraduate students, has invited you to deliver the address at the 121st Commencement Exercises of Bryant College and to receive an honorary degree in recognition of your outstanding accomplishments and contributions to business and public administration. Senator John H. Chafee (R, Rhode Island) personally called your office requesting that you seriously consider accepting the invitation. Approximately 2000 to 3000 people--graduates, students, faculty, and parents--will attend the commencement. The local and national media will cover the events.

Conferring of honorary degrees is a 50 year old tradition at Bryant College. Donald Rumsfeld, Paul Volcker, Austin Kiplinger, G. William Miller, and Adm. Stansfield Turner are former recipients of degrees. After speaking with members of their staffs, we found they were generally pleased with the occasion. Mr. Rumsfeld in particular, who spoke at the 1981 Commencement, said that they "were good people, it was well done and you would enjoy it." (For further information on past speakers, see attached NEXIS reports.)

Founded in 1863, Bryant College is the oldest business college in the country. It is a private, independent, coeducational college with a small graduate school in finance and business located in Smithfield, Rhode Island, 15 miles NW of Providence. Students number approximately 3000, including a few foreign students. The average SAT scores are circa 1000. According to the College staff, Bryant is a conservative institution with no history of demonstrations. (For additional information on the college, see attached brochure.)

3. Recommendation: This would be a pleasant occasion and your acceptance would please Senator Chafee. I recommend you accept their invitation.

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and the entire Bryant College community, it gives me great pleasure to invite you to receive an honorary degree in recognition of your outstanding accomplishments and contributions to business and public service. Should you accept our invitation, our undergraduate students have requested that you address them at their 121st Commencement Exercises to be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, May 19, 1984.

Since its founding in 1863, Bryant College has been dedicated to educating students for leadership positions in management, business, and public administration. Many of Bryant's alumni have achieved important executive positions in national as well as regional corporations. To provide you with more detailed information on our institution, I have enclosed an introductory bulletin about the school.

The tradition of conferring honorary degrees at Bryant is more than fifty years old. Some of the College's more distinguished past recipients include: Paul A. Volcker, Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board; John H. Filer, Chairman, Aetna Life & Casualty Company; Austin H. Kiplinger, President of The Kiplinger Washington Editors; An Wang, Chairman of the Board and President, Wang Laboratories, Inc.; Donald Rumsfeld, President and Chief Executive Officer of G. D. Searle & Co.; Jane Bryant Quinn, syndicated columnist; William M. Agee, Chairman, Bendix Corporation; F. Ray Marshall, Secretary of Labor; Anne Wexler, Assistant to the President of the United States; Benjamin L. Hooks, Executive Director, N.A.A.C.P.; G. William Miller, Secretary of the Treasury and former Chairman, Textron, Inc.; Malcolm S. Forbes, President, Forbes Magazine; Arthur F. Burns, Chairman, Board of Governors, Federal Reserve System; and Irving R. Levine, News Correspondent, NBC.

It is my hope you will permit us to formally recognize your singular achievements. If you accept this offer, the College will send you details of the event at a later date. I would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

William T. O'Hara
